—The Perryburg branch of the Ohio Teacher's Reading Circle held their regular weekly meeting last Wednesday night at Pythian hall. The programme for the evening included the usual reading, and an introduction to a beautiful cloth statue of Thring. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening's entertainment enjoyed by all. The members of the circle who were present were Prof. Sessler and wife, Mrs. Eugene Chapman, Mrs. Jeannette Charles, Misses Fay, Wetzel, Chapman, Hayes, Charles, Kemp, Britton, and Messrs. H. R. Charles, C. Kohl, B. Callen, and H. Oblinger, and E. L. Blue and wife as guests.

—The Teachers' Reading Circle is one of the best and most important factors in the education of those who are, or intend teaching, and every teacher should be compelled to attend these circles as regularly as possible. The Perryburg circle numbers 36 members but the regular attendance is not what it ought to be.

—C. Finkbeiner and daughter, Miss Gerlie, called on Perryburg friends Sunday.

—The inventor of ice cream is said to have been a negro who lived in Philadelphia many years ago.

—Every dog isn't a growler, neither is every "growler" a dog. They are quite as often pitchers.

—Miss Mame Boff who has been visiting in Detroit, returned home on Wednesday accompanied by her sister, Mrs. C. Freidrichs and baby.

—The closest man in Ohio lives in Defiance, says the Hicksville News. He raised the rent on one of the houses because the walls had bulged out and therefore made the house larger.

—The remains of Miss C. Butler of Dunbridge, who died on Sunday morning, aged 16 years, were brought to Perryburg for interment. The funeral services were held at the First Presbyterian church, on Wednesday, by Rev. G. A. Adams.

—The JOURNAL's World's Fair portfolios are attracting much attention and large numbers have been ordered. A large number of readers are saving their coupons with the intention of bringing them all in at one time. This is not the correct way to do, as our supply is limited and when exhausted will not be replenished, therefore all who wish them should be prompt in ordering.

—Gus Johnson, the jeweler, will be found at the postoffice every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Watches, clocks and jewelry repaired in first-class manner. 3tf

Death of Mrs. Swigart.

Diana Burns was born in Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 24, 1829. Twelve years later she removed with her parents to Perryburg. In 1850 she married Baldwin Swigart. She died March 29, 1894, aged 64 years 3 months and 5 days. The funeral services were held in the M. E. Church Monday at 10 a. m. conducted by the Rev. J. C. Shaw. Interment was in Fort Meigs cemetery.

It Should Be in Every House.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpshurg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free Trial Bottle at A. R.
